

ROOF RACK ADAPTERS PN 5125

The Body Armor Roof Rack adapters allow the use of either Yakima® or Thule® accessories on the Body Armor base roof rack. By using the landing pads from either company matted with their matching tower and cross bars you can run any accessory that they offer, including bike racks, kayak racks, snowboard racks and more. Clamp on design will work with any 2" diameter tube, including pickup bed rails. No drilling required, flexibility to locate the adapters in any location along the side tubes. Sold in Pairs!
